DO YOU FEEL THIS WAY.

Do you feel all tired out? Do you sometimes think you just can't work away at your profession or trade any longer? Do you have a poor appetite, and lay awake at nights unable to sleep? Are your nerves all gone, and your stomach too? Has ambition to forge ahead in the world left you? If so, you might as well put a stop to your misery. You can do it if you will. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will make you a different individual. It will set your sluggish liver to work. It will get into every vein in your body and purify your blood. It will set things right in your stomach, and your appetite will come back. If there is any tendency in your family toward consumption, it will keep that dread destroyer away. Even after consumption has almost gained a foothold in the form of a lingering cough, bronchitis, or bleeding at the lungs, it will bring about speedy cure in 98 per cent. of all cases. It is a remedy prepared by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., whose advice is given free to all who wish to write him. His great success has come from his wide experience and varied practice.

O. S. Copenhaver, Esq., of Mount Union, Huntingdon Co., Pa. (Box 229), writes: "About twelve years ago I was suddenly taken with a pain in the pit of the stomach which was so violent I could not walk straight. It would grow more severe until it caused waterbrash and vomiting of a slimy yellow water. A physician told me I had a form of dyspepsia and treated me for about six months with but little benefit. Another physician told me my liver was out of order and that I had indigestion. He gave me a treatment and I got some better but only for a short time. I then tried another one, who said I had chronic indigestion, ulceration of the lining of the stomach, torpid liver and kidney affection. He treated me for more than a year and I felt much better, but it did not last. I then took to using several widely advertised patent medicines, but received no more than temporary relief. I then tried Dr. Pierce's medicines, using his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and the 'Pleasant Pellets,' and in two months' time I was feeling better than I had for years before."

Don't be wheedled by a penny-grabbing dealer into taking inferior substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be "just as good."

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

WEAK HEARTS

are caused by Indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of Indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart.

Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.
MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

A MONTAGUEAN ORATION.

The Winchester Star contains the following, which it credits to its staff correspondent at Lickskillet:

Gov. Montague arose early, and having, according to custom, consulted his dictionary and carefully conned the latest edition of "Phrase and Fable," announced himself ready for the day's work.

The Governor was booked to make the annual address at the commencement exercises of the Afro-American public school at Lickskillet. The pupils, of whom there was seventeen, of both sexes, listened to the orator with openmouthed attention. The Governor was in splendid trim and his effort was entirely worthy of the occasion and the audience. The Governor said in part:

"I desire to say, fellow citizens, that I am the only living protagonist of the Revival of Old-Fashioned Patriotism. I do not believe in new-fashioned patriotism. New fashioned patriotism is not idea, it is not consecrated, nor is it consistent with the finer and higher altitudes of civil righteousness. It is the patriotism of the grubworm, with none of the inspirating beauty of the butterfly, the patriotism of a plain common man, who believes it his duty to work for his constituents and to obtain practical results.

"The State of Virginia is cursed today by the presence in the United States Senate of a representative of this new-fashioned patriotism. This man, Martin, who selfishly refuses to give me his seat in the Senate, is one of the worst exponents of this new-fashioned patriotism. He even goes to the extent of securing appropriations for his constituents. He busies himself with such sordid matters as making a great seaport of Norfolk, with improving the commercial facilities of the city of Richmond, and with securing for Virginia churches financial recompense for war spoliation. And, worse than all this, he so far forgets the true dignity of the statesman as to answer promptly all letters written to him by his constituents.

"He also runs to the departments in Washington and transacts business in their behalf; and, to crown all, he admits that he is loyal to his friends.

"Fellow citizens, I demand that you rebuke this man, Martin, by electing ME in his place. I promise you here and now that I will do none of these things. You have all heard how the youthful Hannibal, standing at the altar of his gods, swore eternal enmity to Rome, so I, at a very early age, swore that the State of Virginia owed me a living and I am going to get it.

"To this end I continually devote my Old-Fashioned Patriotism, as to which I am now personally conducting a revival; my civic righteousness; my christian citizenship, and to this great end I also consecrate my social service.

"It is for this that I have constantly demanded the democratization of the public schools, and it is for this that I am here today, that I was elsewhere yesterday, and will be some other place tomorrow.

"Do not misunderstand me, good friends. I do not intend to do any work save to exercise my heaven-born gift of beauteous speech. I never have worked and never will, but I will make such lovely orations in the Senate that the old Senators will gather around me as the bewitched animals did about the divine Orpheus, and I will tell them in words of sweetness and light of the beauties of civic righteousness, of christian citizenship, of social consecration, and of Old-Fashioned Patriotism. Then will these hoary sinners, one and all, leave their evil ways and dwell with me in the sweet contemplation of virtue.

"And now, fellow citizens, and children, I wish to call your attention to a few profound and original thoughts. If you will always keep all of the ten commandments, you will never at any time oreak one of them. If you want good roads you can have them, provided you build them. Another profound and interesting thought! You can have good schools if the taxpayers contribute enough money, and the teachers are good teachers and the scholars are diligent students.

"Remember, that I am in favor of opening the door of the White House to every male boy, and the door of hope to every female girl. But, above all things, remember that I am the only living statesman who is worthy to wear the shoes of Reeves and the hat of Hunter."

The Governor's oration was frequently punctuated with applause, and at its close the received an ovation. The children fairly fell over each other in their efforts to grasp his hand. A little incident occurred which illustrates the Governor's stern sense of duty. Instead of listening to the oration, Wash Johnston and Julius Caesar Grant were caught playing craps behind Deacon Jones' barn. The Governor solemnly reprehended the culprits and stated that he would report the matter to the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Tomorrow the Governor will, by invitation, deliver an address to the Society for the Encouragement of Mules, which meets at Hayfield on Applepie Ridge, at 2 p. m. All persons who are interested in the propagation, education and demoralization of mules are cordially invited to attend.

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle, with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won and by the use of Electric Bitters. In unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold, under guarantee to do the same for you, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggist, at 50c. a bottle. Try them today.

Norfolk for Martin

The significance of the first day's voting of the democratic primary for the nomination of Norfolk city officers Tuesday is that it re-elects James V. Trehy, the Clerk of the Corporation Court, by a large majority. Trehy is the leader of the anti-administration faction and his election will make him the leader of the united party in the city. He is a Martin leader and therefore will not favor the candidacy of Governor Montague for the Senate. The reform administration is defeated and disorganized after one term, which was disappointing.

TO THE OWNERS OF DOGS.

Mayor's Office,
Alexandria, Va., June 1, 1905.

All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the dog or canine species must come forward on or before and take out a license for the same from the Auditor. After the NINETEENTH OF JUNE all persons owning or harboring dogs without the required license can be fined (as the laws on the subject require) $5 for every dog so owned or harbored.

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that others pay on one or two dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.

Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and the policemen will report all such cases, and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court.

The police officers will be required to report all violations of this law.

☞In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make application for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, &c., on a card or paper when making application for their licenses to the Auditor. FRED. J. PAFF, Mayor.
License and Tag, $1.50.

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 15, 1905.

THE REAL cause on the part of certain nations for pushing the movement toward bringing about pence between Russia and Japan is apparent to those who read between the lines. All the talk concerning duty to humanity, the interests of modern civilization, &c., &c., upon being weighed in the balance is found sadly wanting in the face of actual facts. The true reason is the strained relations existing between other countries at the present time, notably those which are becoming more acute daily between France and Germany. It is thought by the latter nation that France and England are endeavoring to isolate Germany, and that Emperor William has assumed a menacing attitude toward his western neigbbor. France is not in a condition at present to cross swords with the Kaiser and her ally (Russia) is powerless to come to her aid should war be precipitated. Hence it is to the vital interest of both France and England to bring to a close the war between Russia and Japan. Should the Mikado's terms, however, be of such a nature as to prevent the carrying out of this programme the sanguinary conflict will continue, and Russia could only look on should Europe become convulsed with carnage. Emperor William is a puzzle to most statesmen, although some of them seem to divine his aims. He seems anxious, for reasons well understood, to bring on trouble in Europe at this particular time, and has made the Moroccan incident the pretext for irritating France, while the real reason is the friendly relations existing between England and France which are inimical to Germany.

THE RETALIATORY policy inaugurated by China against the United States by reason of the exclusion act of this country is causing apprehension in many quarters. Advices from Honolulu say that considerable attention has been attracted by a Chinese poster which has appeared in Hilo's Asiastic quarters. It says that the government at Peking will issue an order against the purchase of American goods, with a penalty for violation of the order, and will proceed to have Americans who enter China fumigated at the port of entry and charged $5 per head. The adminstration is menaced by the American Federation of Labor who demand that the provisions of the exclusion act be rigidly enforced. At the third day's session of the executive council of this organization in Scranton, Pa., yesterday, a discussion arose relative to attempts to nullify the Chinese exclusion law. President Gompers, Vice President O'Connell and Secretary Morrison, residing in Washington, were appointed a committee to present to President Roosevelt this subject and others affecting the interests of labor. In the meantime American manufacturers anticipate the loss of much of the enormous trade now carried on with the celestial empire.

FOR YEARS it has been customary to bewail in certain cities for some days after the Fourth of July the discomfort, the conflagrations, the maimings and the deaths which are attendant upon the prevailing method of celebrating Independence Day, and to demand, with a fine show of returning reason and righteous indignation, that there shall be no repetition of such miseries. The laws against those evils have long been upon the statute books, but they have never been enforced. They have been widely, openly and flagrantly violated in the storage, sale and use of toy pistols and the many varieties of explosives. The lawbreakers know it. The police know it. The public knows it. It is—to use a current phrase—"up to" the police to check this yearly debauch by strictly enforcing the law. The authorities of this city have for years been urged to see that the State and city laws are enforced. The officials are sworn to do this, and should they fail to take heed to the suggestions so often made they will prove disappointing to those who have a right to ask their protection.

THE various women's associations of this city have adjourned for the summer. They have adjourned—that's all.

COURT OF APPEALS.

In the Court of Appeals at Wytheville yesterday the case of Pocahontas Collieries Company vs. Higginbotham, admistrator, from Circuit Court of Tazewell county, was argued and submitted.

Next cases to be called: Graves vs. Scott et al.

Dunn et als. vs. Stowers et. als.

Merriman vs. Dover Drayton and Leonard, from twenty-second circuit.

The court refused an appeal in the case of Phillips et als. vs. Barham, trustee, et als., from the Circuit Court of Elizabeth City county.

Bristol, Tenn., June 15.—The joint board of Martha Washington College, at Abingdon, Va., and Sullins College, this city, has elected Rev. M. D. Mitchell, of Abingdon, Va., to serve as joint President of these prominent Methodist schools for young ladies. Mr. Mitchell announces his acceptance.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., June 15.

Japanese Minister Takahira called on the President at 10:45 this morning with further advices from his government as to the place of meeting for the peace commissioners. Although the President is disappointed over the seemingly unneccessary delay on the part of the two belligerents in arriving at a definite conclusion on this point, he has not doubted the sincerity of Russia and Japan in entering upon peace negotiations. He does believe, however, that the mere matter of a meeting place is comparatively immaterial, in view of the many other important subjects to be considered. The suggestion has been made that Japan would not be averse to delaying the game of peace until Oyama shall have had the opportunity of inflicting a defeat upon Linevitch, but this theory is denied here. According to Japanese representations, the Mikado has suggested a place of meeting to which Russia should have no reasonable objection; whereas there are reasonable objections from the Japanese point of view to the places suggested by Russia. It is understood that if Russia persists in opposing a point near to the scene of hostilities, Japan will agree to Washington. Thus far the Russian government has held out for Paris or the Hague and has refused to consider Washington favorably.

Minister Takahira was with the President for more than an hour. On leaving the White House he said that there was no hitch in the peace negotiations, merely a delay in fixing upon a place of meeting. "We are travelling along slowly," he said, "toward the desired end."

The place for holding the peace negotiations between Russia and Japan has been decided upon and will be officially announced from the White House later in the day. It is strongly intimated that Washington will be named, although it may be The Hague or Geneva.

Following the making of the above announcement, the Secretary to the President said: "If, after the organization of the plenipotentiaries in Washington, it is found to be too hot here, the meeting can be adjourned to some summer resort in the north." Owing to the uncomfortable character of the climate in Washington during the summer months, this is probably what will be done. The most likely northern resort is Newport, the summer home of many of the diplomats accredited to this capital. Manchester-by-the-Sea has also been suggested."

The President has issued the following: "When the two governments (Russia and Japan) were unable to agree on either Chefoo or Paris, the President suggested the Hague, but both governments have now requested that Washington be chosen the place of meeting of the plenipotentaries and the President has accordingly formally notified both governments that Washington will be selected."

Now that the place has been agreed upon, it is expected that further negotiations leading up to the actual meeting of the commissioners will proceed with more dispatch. The time of the meeting is yet to be announced, as well as the personnel of the commission. Arrangements for the terms of armistice are to be made and other necessary preliminaries adjusted.

The Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia this morning sustained the action of the police court in fining Frank W. Palmer, public printer, $50 for violation of the anti-smoke ordinance at the Government Printing Office. The federal authorities will doubtless take the case to the Supreme Court of the United States. The charge was that Palmer allowed the stacks at the institution to emit dense black smoke for a period of more than three minutes.

President Roosevelt today issued a pardon to L. H. Morphew, a former Indiana man who conducted a pharmacy at Stuttgart, Arkansas. Morphew was tried on a charge of retailing liquor without having paid the internal revenue tax. The liquor which he sold was a malt whisky preparation, a so called patent medicine, which he sold only for medicial purposes, a fact which he did not deny. President Roosevelt also pardoned Monte Brookman, convicted of passing counterfeit $8-bills at Hot Springs, Ark., and sentenced to five years' imprisonment at the Atlanta penitentiary in April, 1904. His pardon is based on the fact that he made himself useful to the secret service men.

Three deaths from yellow fever together with three new cases are reported by Gov. Magoon from the Isthmus of Panama this morning. C. E. Griffiths an American engineer and A. C. Aikens an American contractor who was reported as having been taken sick on the 12th died on the following day. Since the first of June including today's report there have been thirty-one cases of yellow fever on the Isthmus and four deaths.

President Roosevelt shook hands this morning with twenty-five visitors from Berlin, Germany, who are in this country as delegates to the International Turn Fest which is to be held next week at Indianapolis. The German turners of Washington are entertaining the delegates from the Fatherland and after an elaborate luncheon at Seangerbund Hall today, escorted them to Mount Vernon. The German visitors carried to Mount Vernon a large floral offering which they placed on the tomb of Washington.

Chairman Shonts, of the Panama Canal Commission; R. P. Schwerin, President of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, and Maxwell Evarts, counsel for that company, had a conference with the President today regarding the proposed cancelling of the contract whereby the Pacific mail has been enjoying a monopoly of trade with the isthmus. It was stated by the parties who called that no conclusion had been reached.

Hanged.

Hot Springs, Va., June 15.—Wm. Hansbrough, murderer of James R. Keenan, on March 17 last, was hanged here this morning at 6:21 o'clock. The body was shipped to the college of medicine, Richmond. With a firm step, Hansbrough ascended the scaffold. His last word were: "I die trusting in God. May he have mercy on my soul. May you all meet me in Heaven." The trap was spung by Charles Gum, deputy sheriff. This was the first hanging in Bath county, since 1878.

Grover Cleveland, Justice Morgan J. O'Brien and George Westinghouse, appointed trustees, of the majority stock of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, met in New York today to consider the deed of trust. It is probable that the deed of trust will be finally determined this evening.

News of the Day.

State Mineralogist Aubrey, of California, charges that thousands of acres of land in that State have been illegally secured.

It is intimated that Germany's supposed intention to fortify Kiaochou bay may decide Great Britain to hold on to Wei Hai Wei.

Three were killed and twenty-nine injured in the wreck near Albion, Ill., Tuesday of a special train carrying Confederate veterans to the reunion which begins in Louisville today.

During the half century from 1853 to 1903 over 13,000,000 people emigrated from the British Isles, and of this immense number the great majority to swell the population of the United States.

Owing to the failure of the prosecutor or the attorneys to appear before Judge Arthur Carr yesterday morning at ten o'clock, at Hyattsville, Md., the Kenilworth poolroom case was continued until Saturday, June 24.

Blows were exchanged in the First Branch City Council chamber, in Baltimore Tuesday. James Satterfield, a democratic executive of the Twentieth ward, knocked Hugh Graham down at the hearing of the Kohlstead-Copeland contest.

In Montreal Tuesday Judge Hall granted the petition of counsel for Gaynor and Greene to be allowed to appeal to the Supreme Court against the decision of Justice Davidson that Judge Lafontaine had the right to act as extradition commissioner. This action will undoubtedly cause a delay of six months.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

In the course of an impressive service under the auspices of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association at Louisville, Kentucky yesterday evening Rev. C. R. Polhill, of that city, who made the principal address, urged that the men of the South co-operate with the women of the association in an effort to erect a fitting monument for Jefferson Davis, "who embodied in himself as did no other Confederate soldier or statesman the whole cause for which we went to arms."

The Orphan Brigade held its twenty-second annual reunion late in the afternoon. Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner was one of the speakers. Capt. J. H. Weller was re-elected commander of the organization by acclamation.

The reception accorded Gen. Joe Wheeler was second to none of the day. The famous cavalry officer was cheered from the time his gray-topped head was discerned in the great throng until he ascended the rostrum and motioned for silence. He thanked the veterans for the heartiness of their reception, and assured them that their greeting went deep into his heart.

The United Sons of Confederate Veterans met yesterday in Hopkins Theater. The attendance was not large. The convention was called to order by Marion W. Ripy, lieutenant commander of the local camp, in the absence of John C. Davidson, the commandant. Col. W. R. Bingham welcomed the delegates to Louisville and Kentucky. The response was by Hon. T. P. Stone, of Waco, Tex., a past commander-in-chief.

Col. N. R. Tisdal, of Rusk, Tex., then addressed the convention.

Last night the street cars were jammed with people, the concert at Jockey Club Park was given to the capacity of the inclosure, the river steamers were crowded, the parks held their throngs, and the sponsors' ball held attractions for hundreds, yet the hotel lobbies were filled with pushing, perspiring crowds up to a late hour.

Automobile Struck by Train.

An automobile occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Sayer, of Englewood, N. J., and their two sons was struck by an Erie train near Goshen, N. Y., yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Sayer were instantly killed and their sons were hurled several feet, striking near the tracks. They are not expected to survive their injuries. The chauffeur saved his life by jumping before the train struck the automobile. Mr. Sayer, who was president of the Rider Engine Company, was accompanying his family on a trip to their summer camp at Warwarsing, which they expected to reach today. Mr. Sayer was sitting on the front seat of the automobile alongside the chauffer as the crossing was reached. It is stated by witnesses of the tragedy that several persons called to the party not to attempt to cross the tracks ahead of the train. They declare that Mr. Sayer, however, ordered the chauffeur to proceed. Just as the automobile reached the tracks, the train appeared. The chaugeur attempted to turn the machine from its course, but before it had been swerved sufficiently the train struck it with terrific force. Mr. and Mrs. Sayer were hurled under the train and instantly killed. Their two sons were picked up from beside the tracks.

Last night Bishop Alpheus W. Wilson, of Baltimore, preached at the closing session of the conference.

Whooping Cough in Jamaica.

Mr. J. Riley Bennett, a chemist of Brown's Town, Jamaica, West India Islands, writes: "I cannot speak too highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has proved itself to be the best remedy for whooping cough, which is prevalent on this end of the globe. It has never failed to relieve in any case where I have recommended it, and grateful mothers, after using it, are daily thanking me for advising them." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Two most interesting features of the State Central Democratic Committee, which will convene in Richmond tonight, will be the fixing of the date for the State primary and the action on the question of a primary in Norfolk county under the supervision of the State Central Commitee. The first question will be settled by the selection of either the 10th or 12th of August as the date for the primary.

FIGHTING RENEWED.

A dispatch from Gunshu Pass, Manchuria, dated yesterday, says that the Japanese have forced the advanced posts of the Russian left beyond the Kaoche river and are occupying the heights north of the river. A heavy force seems to be behind this movement. Field Marshal Oyama is ready for a general offensive.

The Russian War Office believes that a general engagement has begun between the Russian and Japanese armies in Manchuria. Telegrams just received from the front report severe fighting on the Russian left, which has been compelled to give way before the Japanese advance.

A dispatch from General Linevitch dated June 12 says that the Japanese began an attack June 9, advancing with a column composed of infantry, cavalry and mountain and machine guns along the Mandarin road. Another column, consisting of infantry and artillery, advanced simultaneously along the valley eastward of the Mandarin road and June 10 occupied the hills on the right bank of Kud river, northward of the village of Liauchoditchen and Kandaone.

These movements show that Oyama is advancing in a vast semi-circle, with the intention of surrounding the Russians. General Linevitch's report indicates that the left point of the semi-circle is near Fenghwa, 90 miles north of Tieling, and the right point of Yingcheng 60 miles east of Fenghwa.

Dispatch to the London Daily Mail from Seoul, Korea, says that the movements of the Japanese armies against Gen. Linevitch are progressing rapidly. The next few days should see the opening of what will probably prove the decisive action of the campaign. Gen. Linevitch is in an almost hopeless position. His force is much inferior to that of the Japanese. The Russians are shaken by their repeated reverses, and the catastrophe in the sea of Japan caused consternation among them.

Trolley to Winchester.

The Winchester and Washington City Railway Company has purchased from the estate of ex-Governor Lowndes, of Maryland, and David Sloan, of Lonaconing, Md., their waterpower on Shenandoah river, four miles southeast of Charlestown, for $10,000. The water power is said to be capable of developing 2,000 horsepower. The company has an engineer on the premises who is making surveys, and the power will be developed at once. It is stated that the company will build a trolley line from Harpers Ferry to Winchester by way of Charlestown and Berryville. A line is also to be built from Berryville to Bluemont, and probably from that point to Washington. Winchester, Berryville and Philadelphia parties are the promoters.

Today's Telegraphic News

From Richmond.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., June 15.—The first session of the State Bankers' Association was held here today and the reports of the officers and the committees were heard. Secretary Shaw will arrive tonight and speak tomorrow.

The city is thronged with democratic leaders to attend the State committee meeting tonight. There will be a hot contest up from Norfolk.

Attack on Fortress Monroe.

Fort Monroe, Va., June 15.—Eight powerful vessels under the personal command of Rear Admiral Dickins made a slight demonstration at an early hour this morning against Fortress Monroe. The fleet advanced upon the fortifications in two columns, the four big coast defense monitors approaching from the northerly direction, and the Texas, Hartford, and two smaller ships from the northeast. None of the fleet came nearer than ten miles to the big guns of Fortress Monroe. It was evidently the intention of Admiral Dickins to draw the fire of the northern batteries of the fort in order that he might learn the exact location. As far as could be seen from the land, Admiral Dickins did not fire any of his guns at the land defenses. When the Texas, passed forward and the two small ships come within the ten-mile zone of fire, Colonel Potts, commandant of Fortress Monroe, ordered the 12-inch mortar batteries to open fire. Probably ten shots were fired when the ships all withdrew to a safe distance. It is believed that a general attack on the fortifications here will be made either today or tonight. Admiral Dickins now has with him practically all of the powerful vessels of his command. The monitor Puritan, which was reported aground in the Potomac river, was with Admiral Dickins fleet this morning. According to the best information obtainable by the land forces the remainder of the week will be spent in an attack upon these fortifications. Admiral Dickins has already conclusively demonstrated the fact that a hostile fleet could pass between Capes Henry and Charles into Chesapeake bay with impunity, and without fear of the guns at Fort Monroe. He will now endeavor to show that it would be possible to pass Fort Monroe and destroy the big shipyards at Newport News.

Killed in Automobile Accident.

Lynn, Mass., June 15.—William Butler Woodridge, President of the Columbian National Life Insurance Company, former Princeton athlete and prominent Boston clubman, was instantly killed in an automobile accident in Cliftondale this morning. Mr. Wolfe, a prominent New York actuary, was so badly injured that he is now at the Lynn hospital in a precarious condition. Mr. Woodridge's host, A. E. Childs, president of the Light and Power Corporation, and his chauffeur, W. E. Tensler, the old time cycle racer, escaped injury. The accident happened at the corner of Broadway and Buffum streets, about one o'clock when the party in a 45 horse power touring car were on their way from the country club races to the North Shore. Mr. Childs, who was driving, mistook the road and the big machine crashed into a barbed wire fence. The car turned over and landed in a garden. Mr. Woodridge was instantly killed and Mr. Wolfe was picked up unconscious, and it is thought his skull is fractured.

Fight at a Performance.

Vienna, June 15.—Three persons were killed, eighteen were seriously injured, and forty others were bruised and badly shaken up in a free fight which occurred at a performance of a travelling show at Derekgyhaz, Hungary. A "cannibal" act was billed as a part of the performance but when it came time for this turn, the manager announced that it could not be given unless some one in the audience would offer himself as a subject for the cannibal. A peasant boy volunteered to act as the victim. The cannibal seized the boy's ear in his teeth and bit him. The boy shrieked with pain, but the cannibal only bit the harder. Some of the boy's relatives rushed to his assistance, while other people in the audience, who did not wish to have the act interfered with held them back. This brought on the melee in which the casualties announced occurred. During the excitement occasioned by the fight the realistic cannibal escaped, and the police are now searching for him.

Beaten and Robbed.

New York, June 15.—John Elders was held up early this morning while walking with his wife, Eliza, in front of 18 Hamilton street. Elders was set upon by the men, who beat him into unconsciousness, after which they rifled his pockets, securing about ten dollars and a cheap watch. His wife attempted to help her husband, but was felled with a blow in the face. Her screams brought Policeman Moran to the scene, but the thugs escaped. Elders was removed to the Gouverneur Hospital suffering from a fractured skull. His condition is said to be serious. The police later rounded up a gang in the neighborhood of the hold-up known as the Hamilton gang. From the gang Mrs. Elders identified two as the assailants.

Cause of the Defeat.

St. Petersburg, June 15.—The correspondent of the Publishers Press has learned from an authoritative source that an official report made on Admiral Rojestvensky's recent overwhelming defeat, which has been kept from the public, says that the sailors on his vessel were in a discontented mood throughout the voyage to the far east. Several times there were outbreaks among the sailors, who rebelled against the poor food served them. Every prison on the ships was filled with mutineers, who were released just before the battle began. The crews were practically without training, as they had practiced with the guns only three times during the entire voyage. After Admiral Nebogatoff surrendered the vessels of his squadron the men broke out in open revolt. They smashed everything in the cabins. It was not until after the Japanese had boarded the vessels that order was restored.

Royal Wedding.

Windsor, June 15.—Princess Margaret, of Connaught, niece of King Edward and granddaughter of Queen Victoria, was married today to Prince Gustavus Adolphus, of Sweden, son of the Swedish crown prince. The ceremony was performed in St. George's chapel in the grounds of Windsor Castle, the Archbishop of Canterbury officiating. The streets and houses of Windsor were beautifully decorated with flags, flowers and bunting, but the residents saw very little of the wedding, everything occurring within the grounds of the castle. The chapel was filled with royal and distinguished guests, including the members of the diplomatic corps. The bride entered the chapel holding the arm of her father, the Duke of Connaugh, and walked up the aisle to a wedding hymn, sung by the St. George's choir. She wore a beautiful white satin dress, trimmed with Irish lace, having a long train and her ornaments were diamonds and pearls. Behind her were four bridesmaids, her sister, Princess Patricia, of Connaught; her cousins, Prince Beatrice, of Saxe Coburg; Princess Ena, of Battenburg, and Princess Victoria, Mary, the eight-year-old daughter of the Prince of Wales.

Princess Victoria acted as train bearer. After her walked Princess Patricia alone, followed in turn by Princess Beatrice and Ena together. The bridesmaids wore dresses of blue silk and had wreaths of Shamrocks and Marguerites. Prince Gustavus Adolphus awaited his bride at the altar near which were gathered King Edward, Queen Alexandria, and the crown prince of Sweden. The brief ceremony of the church of England was used. The party left the church and drove to Windsor castle in state carriages escorted by life guards. They entered the White Room, where the marriage registry was signed by the bride and groom, the King of England, the Crown Prince of Sweden, the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Connaught. They moved into the state apartments which were thrown open to the guests in the church, who offered their congratulations to the young couple, after which a wedding dinner was served. The bride and groom will spend their honeymoon in Ireland, and will later go to Sweden.

Confederate Veterans.

Louisville, Ky., June 15.—Jupiter Pluvius, who never missed a Confederate reunion, arrived today, and the rain, though slight, interfered somewhat with the barbecue at Shawnee Park, the principal feature of the day. The barbecue began at noon and will continue all afternoon. Thousands of gallons of burgoo and the regulation barbecue have been provided. The report of the committee on credentials shows that 2,268 delegates, representing 730 camps, are in attendance.

The report of the committee on history recommended that writers be appointed to prepare accurate and unbiased articles on the following subjects:

The legal right of secession; the honorable conduct of the war by the Confederate government; the readiness of the seceding States to make peace on honorable terms. The wrongful imprisonment of Jefferson Davis after the war.

The report recommended in conclusion that all sectional bitterness be avoided by Confederate writers, and no effort be spared to do justice to the brave men who fought for the north.

The following amended was adopted: "We condemn the cruel shackling of Jefferson Davis after he was imprisoned."

Verdict Against Howard Gould

Mineola, N. Y., June 15.—The jury in the suit for compensation of $60,000 for services brought by Abner J. Haydel, an architect, against Howard Gould for services in drawing plans for Castle Gould, brought in a verdict this morning for $29,183.75 less $5,000 paid on account. Henry Monfort, counsel for Mr. Gould, made a motion for a new trial, which was denied by Judge Keogh, who, however, granted a stay of execution of thirty days and set a limit of sixty days in which to make an appeal to the higher courts. Haydel claims to have designed and drawn no less than nineteen different sets of plans, within the period of three years, for a mansion to resemble the famous Castle of Kilkenny, to be known as Castle Gould, on Sands Point, L. I., for Howard Gould, who inherited $7,000,000 from his father, Jay Gould. He denies that the architect ever really completed any worthy design and claimed he voluntarily threw up the job.

Confident of Peace.

London, June 15.—The London Times publishes a cable dispatch from George W. Smalley, its Washington correspondent, in which he says that President Roosevelt is confident that the peace negotiations which have begun will go through without a hitch. It is said here that Mr. Smalley had a talk with President Roosevelt and that his dispatch accurately expressed the President's views.

Terrible Disaster Recalled.

New York, June 15.—One year ago today one thousand and thirty-one persons lost their lives by the burning and sinking of the excursion steamer General Slocum in the East river. Two hundred and sixty-six persons were injured in the worst marine disaster that has ever occurred in New York waters. No one has been punished for the criminal negligence which made the disaster possible. A granite monument will be unveiled at Middle Village, L. I., this afternoon, to the unidentified dead, and tonight a memorial service will be held at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, from which the party of fourteen hundred excursionists set out a year ago to enjoy a day on the Sound. The excursionists were mostly women and children.

The Suburban.

New York, June 15.—The twenty-third running of the Suburban Handicap, the blue ribbon event of the east, will be had at the Coney Island jockey club race track at Sheepshead Bay this afternoon. The entry list has the names of twelve pretty evenly matched horses of good class and a fine contest is looked for. The favorite will probably be James R. Keene's Delhi, who is quoted at 2½ to 1. August Belmont's grand mare Beldame will probably be 3 to 1, with Walter B. Jennings's Proper and John E. Madden's Abdell equal third choices at 6 to 1.

Those Old Charges.

A dispatch from Richmond says that so much interest has been aroused by the revival of the old charges that Senator Thomas S. Martin, now a candidate for re-election, was elected to the United States Senate by the improper use of money that the report of the special legislative committee, which twelve years ago investigated those charges, has been resurrected and printed in part. The committee, consisting of Messrs. Mushbach, Green, Tredway, Nicol, Downing, Cooke and Boykin, submitted the following:

"1—That certain practices and acts were proven connected with the election of November 7, 1893, which your committee does not commend, but such practices and acts were without the assent or approbation of any candidate for the United States Senate, and not different from those resorted to in former campaigns.

"2—That this evidence fails to show that any improper methods were used by any candidates for the United States Senate to influence the vote of members of the general assembly at the caucus held December 7, 1893, in the hall of the house of delegates.

"3—That the said evidence fails to show that any candidate for the nomination of United States Senator, before the said caucus held in the hall of the House of Delegates, December 7, 1893, was guilty of using any improper methods or means in securing delegates or senators in his or their interest at the election held on the 7th day of November, 1893."

[COMMUNICATED.

About this time last year quite a little stir was made by people going to the different cemeteries just outside the city and stealing flowers, ferns, etc. The same practice seems to be imminent this season. A few days ago while one of our citizens (as well as many others,) who pay their respects to their departed ones and try to have their lots looking in good order on going to the cemetery, he not only found some choice flowers taken away from the grave, but, had not a couple of ladies from the city been in close proximity the day before, two urns with fresh spring flowers would also have been robbed, as these "female highwaymen" were about to upturn the vases and take plants, roots and all. Their names are well known and a kindly hint should stop them in such a low and dastardly act, otherwise their names may be found before the "Police Court." ALMA

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Evidence establishing conspiracy on the part of the labor leaders is said to have been furnished today by John Driscoll who finished his story of strike graft before the Chicago grand jury. The State board of arbitration has not given up hopes of bringing about a settlement of the strike. It is still continuing its offices. Today it was announced that the board has framed a peace proposition which had been accepted by the teamsters but rejected by the employers. Secrecy is being observed concerning the term of this latest proposition.

Letter to Anthony Brenner.

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: You want a cheap job of paint for a cheap house, don't you?

It's Devoe. It's the regular thing in Devoe; there's nothing, in all paint, so cheap as Devoe.

Oh, yes, you can paint with mud; but that isn't paint; you want it to look about right for a month or two.

Paint Devoe; can't do it for less; there's nothing so cheap; say nothing of wear, there's nothing so cheap as Devoe.

It goes so far; save gallons. A gallon of paint, put-on, costs $4 or $5; save gallons

Devoe is your paint; save gallons; Devoe is your paint.

Yours truly,
F W DEVOE & CO

Acton Precision Watch

Is not the cheapest, but is by far the least expensive.

This is a deliberate statement of fact—not a puff of advertising. Some day not far off, those who are now buying cheap watches will recall our statement and admit that we spoke the truth; for they will then come to see that it is more expensive to buy the cheap watch with an empty guarantee than to secure the best in the beginning by paying a trifle more.

Theological Seminary.

The commencement exercises of the Theological Seminary of the Episcopal Church, near this city, took place this morning at ten o'clock, with Bishop Gibson presiding as president of the seminary. The alumni students and professors with the president formed in procession in Prayed Hall and marched to the chapel, the president and professors vested in their academic gowns. The president and professors took their seats in front of the chancel and the graduating class were seated in front pews. After singing the hymn for Divinity schools, "God of the Prophets, Bless the Prophets' Sons," and prayer by the president, the following essays were read:

"The Idea of an After Life in the book of Job," by Wilbur Cosby Bell, B. A. "Acceptance and Forgiveness by God the Father through faith and love or Justification by Faith," by Pierce N. McDonald, A. B. "The Muhlenberg Memorial," by Beverley D. Tucker, jr., M. A. After the reading of the essays which were of unusal excellence, the names of the members of the middle and junior classes of this year who had passed their examinations successfully were next announced as advanced to the senior and middle classes of next session respectively. The following gentlemen were given certificates for successful work in all the departments of the Seminary course except Hebrew,—Robert Young Barber, Thomas Getz Hill, Luke M. White, George Peyton Craighill for all work in the course except Greek, and Sidney W. Creasy for successful work in certain departments. The graduates for this year, nine in number, next came forward and received their diplomas as follows: William Corby Bell, B. A., Albert E. Clattenburg, John F. Coleman, Walker M. Gage, Wythe L. Kinsolving, M. A., Pierce N. McDonald B. A., Hugh W. S. Powers, William P. Remington B. S., and Beverley D. Tucker, jr. M. A.

Rev. Paca Kennedy M. A., was declared a Bachelor in Divinity, and the diploma of the degree conferred upon him. As he was not present on account of the distance of his parish in West Virginia from the Seminary, the diploma will be sent to him. The address to the graduating class was then delivered by Rev. Landon Mason, of Richmond, after which the session of 1904-05 was declared closed by the President. The past session was most successful and the work done by the students generally of a high order. Many of the friends of relatives of the graduating class were present. Shortly after the close of the commencement exercises the annual meeting of the alumni of the Seminary was held in the chapel with Bishop Peterkin, of West Virginia, in the chair. The meeting was opened with prayer, followed by the reading of the essay by the Rev. W. H. Falkner, of St. Peter's Church, Baltimore. Business of a general nature was then transacted until half-past one, when the alumni repaired to the refectory for the annual dinner, at the conclusion of which a number of interesting speeches were made in response to the usual toasts. Further business was transacted, the alumni resuming its session at 3 p. m. A large number of members were in attendance, among whom were Revs. C. J. Holt, W M. Dame, D. D., A. S. Lloyd, D. D., J. Tompsom Cole, W. M. Clark, Bishop Penick and Kensey J. Hammond. Bishop G. H. Kinsolving was at the Seminary yesterday, but was not able to remain over for the alumni meeting. The proceedings of the day were most interesting and enjoyed by alumni and friends. A collation was served in Whittle Hall to all visitors not alumni. A most interesting feature of this commencement was the re-union of the class of 1880, consisting of the Revs. W. M. Clark, E. L. Goodwin, W. W. Kimball, A. S. Lloyd, D. D.; M. P. Logan, D. D.; C. J. S. Mayo, W. G. McCready, D. D.; T. J. Packard, D. D., and D. W. Wynn. The only one of the class deceased is Rev. M. T. Turner—a remarkable record for 25 years. The most distant members are Rev. D. W. Wynn, of St. Simon's, Georgia, and M. P. Logan, of Nashville, Tenn. The rest are in Maryland and Virginia, except Rev. Dr. Lloyd, general secretary of the General Missionary Society of the Episcopal Church, resident in New York. Rev. W. M. Clark is editor of the old Southern Churchman, formerly published in this city.

River Notes.

Several of the large sand and gravel carrying scows belonging to one of the local sand dredging companies are at the shipyard to be given an overhauling and to be made ready for active service. The Washington-owned schooner Samuel Wood is on the big marine railway at Alexandria for extensive repairs to her hull, before she loads a cargo of railway ties for Philadelphia.

The rebuilding of Drill's wharf (lower Cedar Point), on the Potomac, is rapidly approaching completion, and it will be ready for service within the next few days. As soon as the work is completed there the pile drivers and force of wharf builders will go to Colonial Beach to complete the pier there, the work on which was temporarily stopped for want of material. These wharves were badly damaged by drifting ice during the past winter.

The Anti-Expectorating Law.

The ordinances to prohibit expectorating or spitting on sidewalks, in public buildings, or on cars or coaches owned or operated by common carriers in this city went into effect today. The law provides that any person violating the provisions of the ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than one dollar nor more than ten dollars for each offense. The ordinance was passed about a month ago and published officially in the Gazette the 30th ultimo; hence due notice has been given.

Musical Recital.

The musical recital to be given by the pupils of Miss Marie Devitt's class will take place tomorrow evening at eight o'clock. Among the difficult numbers on the programme will be the Stabat Mater of Rossini, performed on two pianos with violin obligato.

More Mimic War.

The mimic war which was precipitated Tuesday night between six and seven miles below this city was continued at intervals last night. Many people gathered on Windmill Hill, the eminence at Battery Rodgers and on the river front to witness from afar the workings of the searchlights, the glare of rockets and the flash of guns. The moon shone brightly and the shimmering Potomac never looked prettier. Shortly before ten o'clock searchlights at Forts Hunt and Washington, it is supposed, detected suspicious-looking vessels which were endeavoring to sneak by those strongholds, and the forts belched forth a rain of fire and forced them to run out of the range of the guns. This performance was kept up at intervals throughout the night. As was the case Tuesday evening, the excursion steamers from Washington and this city carried large crowds to River View and Marshall Hall from which points the "engagements" were witnessed to advantage. The steamers were running until a late hour.

The engagement closed with an attack at 5 o'clock this morning by the double-turreted monitor Terror and the converted gunboat Siren. The vessels moved up the river under cover of an almost impenetrable fog which rolled up stream from Marshall Hall shortly before 5 a. m. At 4:45 the signal station down the river had informed Col. Roberts at Fort Washington that the ships were advancing, but at 4:59 when the Terror rounded Marshall Point, according to telegraphic information, it was impossible to discern an object more than 3 miles below the fort. Under the circumstances Col. Roberts issued orders for an "independent action." Battery commanders immediately got their individual range finders busy and waited for the first appearance of the ships through the fog. The action commenced at 5:10 when Capt. Wilson, commanding the Mt. Vernon battery at Fort Hunt, had a glimpse through a rift in the mist of the Terror at 2,900 yards. He opened with his three 8-inch guns and fired ten rounds before the 12-inch batteries at Fort Washington found the range and commenced firing at the target.

A few minutes later the Siren was made out and both ships, as they sailed up the stream, received round after round from the batteries on both sides of the river. The range decreased, until, as the ships were passing the fort, the guns were being fired point blank. The order to cease firing was made at 5:38. Just after the boats passed, the fog lifted, having covered their advance all the way up. Above Fort Washington the boats turned and retired down the river. As they passed between the fortifications the artillerymen mounted the parapet and gave three cheers for the navy. The Terror replied by saluting with her fog horn. The Siren and Terror remained throughout the night below Marshall's Point and sent half a dozen whale boats and barges into the mine-field to lift mines and countermine in preparation for this morning's attack. From 9:30 last evening until an hour and a half before this morning's attack these boats were being constantly picked up by the searchlights and the big guns and rapid fire batteries were figuratively peppering the sailors with a hail of shot. About 4 o'clock this morning a party of sailors landed at Fort Hunt dock. Later they said they came ashore for a drink of water. All landing parties, however, are prohibited in these exercises, so the commanding officer turned out a Krag-Jorgensen party and there was a theoretical hand-to-hand conflict between the gunners and the blue jackets, after which the sailors were permitted to return to their boats and go back to their ships. The constructive result of the early morning battle was the utter demolition of the navy contingent and the second saving of the national capital. Shots were fired by the 8-inch battery in Fort Hunt in addition to 100 shots from the 12-inch guns across the river. Theoretically only 10 shots each were necessary to sink the Terror and Siren. The umpires fired rockets from shore to shore as each of the small boats during the night were constructively put out of action while they were engaged in removing mines.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Richard Jackson, colored, arrested by Officer Young charged with assaulting James Diggs with a rock, was fined $5.

James Reed, arrested by Lieutenant Smith and Officer Gill charged with deserting from the United States navy, was sent to the Washington authorities in charge of the last-named officer.

A white man, arrested by Officer Arrington charged with stealing one dollar from an up-town druggist, was fined $10.

James Diggs, arrested by Lieutenant Smith charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

George Shirley, arrested by Officer Bettis charged with assaulting Maggie Allen, was fined $5.

Monitor Aground.

The monitor Puritan, the big practice ship of the Naval Battalion, D. C. N. G. is stranded on a bar at Point Lookout. The accident occurred in steaming around from Baltimore to take part in the attack on the river defenses of Washington. Coming around Point Lookout, by a miscalculation the monitor headed inside the buoy marking the turn from the bay into the Potomac, and ran upon a sand bar jutting out from the bay side. Her speed was high, and the vessel was sent well upon the bar. Her own engines reversed failed to get the monitor off, and the efforts of the William H. Yerkes, jr., a tug from Washington, to pull her off, brought no better results. Several tugs from Norfolk were sent to assist the boat. The Puritan was subsequently floated.

Remains Forwarded.

The remains of the late E. P. McLean, formerly deputy collector of internal revenue for this district, who died at the Alexandria Hospital at an early hour yesterday morning, were forwarded last night by Demaine & Son to the home of the deceased in Mecklenburg county where the interment will take place.

Hotel Fleischmann.

The statement made yesterday of the reported closing of the Hotel Fleischmann was somewhat misleading. The hotel will be kept open but on the European plan and will not be conducted on the American plan, as heretofore. No change will be made in the saloon or restaurant features of the hotel.

Weddings.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Magruder Danenhower, of this city, and Mr. David N. Rust, jr., of Alexandria county, which took place yesterday evening at Christ Church at 8:30 o'clock, was one of the prettiest marriages in Alexandria this season. A large number of friends of the bride and groom from this city and surrounding country were present to witness the nuptial ceremony which was performed by Rev. William J. Morton, rector of Christ Church, assisted by Rev. Harry B. Lee, of Baltimore, brother-in-law of the groom. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the chancel being banked with palms, ferns and flowers, and the overlooking galleries hung with green vines. During the ceremony Mr. Kenneth Ogden sang a solo, and the wedding march was sung by the Chapter of Praise, of which the bride is an active member, Mrs Charles Lennon presiding at the organ. The bride wore a handsome gown of chiffon cloth built over white taffeta and trimmed with duchess lace. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her maid of honor was her sister, Miss Frances Danenhower, who wore white net over yellow taffeta and a yellow chiffon girdle. Miss Danenhower carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses tied with yellow tulle. The bridesmaids were Miss Bessie Jones, of this city; Miss Lucy Rust, of Alexandria county, sister of the groom; Miss Annie Voight, of Norfolk, and Miss Kate Pretlow, of Franklin, Va. They were dressed in white net over white taffeta, with yellow chiffon girdles, and carried bouquets of white sweet peas, tied with yellow tulle. Dr. Thomas L. Rust, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and the ushers were Frank Moss and Gardner L. Boothe, of this city, John Rust, of Alexandria county; Angus McDonald Crawford, of the Theological Seminary; Philip Dawson, of Fairfax, and Dr. Edgar Snowden Immediately after the ceremony a reception was given at the residence of Miss Laura F. Smoot, aunt of the bride, 1009 King street. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Rust left for a northern tour.

Mr. Robert A. Rollins, of Washington, and Miss Mary A. Acres, of Alexandria, were married at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Margaret Green, No. 1009 Gibbon street, yesterday evening, by Rev. J. P. Stump.

Miss Ruth V. Lyles and Mr. A. C. Slaymaker were quietly married last night at the home of the bride by Rev. J. P. Stump.

St. Mary's Academy.

The happy anticipations of many young hearts were yesterday realized when the graduating exercises of this popular educational institution took place. A large and select audience filled the Opera House when at three thirty the curtain rose upon a scene of loveliness. Stately palms and beautiful flowers in profusion adorned the front and side of the stage and for central setting nearly a hundred young girls robed in snowy white, who began the programme, which consisted of music, essays and physical culture exercises, all of which was admirably rendered. Miss Mae McWilliams and Miss Margaret Greene, of this city, received certificates of graduation and gold medals. The names of the others receiving distinctions were published in Tuesday's Gazette. Miss McWilliams read the valedictory. It were truly a poem, couched in musical pentameters, "On the Banks of the Storied Potomac." The last chorus in which all the senior pupils took part was a fitting close to an ably rendered programme. Rev. W. L. Sullivan, C. S. P., made the closing remarks. In beautiful language he tendered a glowing tribute of praise to the Sisters of the Holy Cross, the two graduates, and St. Mary's pupils upon all of whom he begged God's blessing for future success. Father Sullivan is no stranger here and his audience attested their esteem and appreciation of his kind remarks by continuous rounds of hearty applause.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

James Constantinople, a native of Greece, was granted final naturalization papers.

H. B. Caton was substituted trustee under certain deeds of trusts in place of I. M. Kell, deceased.

R. C. Smeed was appointed trustee for Anna G. Smeed under the will of the late Wm. Gregory, in place of George Johnston, deceased.

The grand jury will meet at 7 o'clock this evening, when, if what leaks from the grand jury room is true, a report will be made placing the police force in a most unfavorable light.

Precipitated Into the Dock.

Two young women were precipitated into Mr. DeW. Aitcheson's dock, between Prince and Duke streets, about half-past ten o'clock last night. They were speedily rescued. It seems that a small boat had been procured by three young men for the purpose of taking the young ladies out into mid-stream to witness the glare from the mimic battle at Forts Washington and Hunt. The ladies were seated in the boat when by changing their positions they caused it to careen and throw them into the water. The incident caused considerable excitement among the many persons who were on the river front at the time.

Wholesale Grocers.

The wholesale grocers and tobacconists' association of tidewater Virginia is issuing circulars, giving details of the convention in Norfolk next week of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association. Copies were mailed to probably 1,000 men in the south connected with the wholesale grocers' business. It is expected that fully four hundred delegates will be in attendance on the sessions of the convention. The railroads have made a rate for the convention of one fare for the round trip plus 25 cents, tickets being good for thirty days. Several of the firms in this city will be represented.

Burned by Live Wire.

Frank, the little son of Mr. Julian Bettis, had his hands burned by an electric wire near the corner of Wolfe and Pitt streets this morning. The wire had been prostrated, and the feet of the boy, who was barefoot, became entangled in the same. In using his hands to free his feet, the hands were painfully burned.

The regular business meeting of the Allison W. C. T. U. will be held tomorrow night at 8 o'clock at the Children's Home on Duke street.

Miss Mary E. Carlin has gone to Ellicott City, Md., to visit her sister, Mrs. William Fulton.

An approaching marriage of much interest is that of Miss Minna Irene Smithers to Mr. James Owen Reilly, of North Carolina, the marriage to take place Wednesday evening, June 21, at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride. No invitations were issued in this city, as the marriage ceremony will be witnessed by only the bride's most intimate friends.

Mr. Park Agnew has been elected a director of the Washington, Alexandria and Mt. Vernon Railway.

Mr. John T. Hunter, a former well-known resident of this city, died suddenly at his home in Washington this morning, aged 85 years. Mr. Hunter, it will be remember, was for many years connected with the furniture firm of Wm. Muir. His remains will be brought here for interment, and the funeral will take place from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. F. G. Grimes, Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Cuban Diarrhoea.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I than God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by Hibson & Timberman and W. F. COLDREN'S GUM Elevates the Standard of the Mason Jar.

Read Carefully

By using Coldren's Extra Heavy Jar Gums you need no wrench to close or open your jars, consequently there will be no broken cap linings or tops of jars.

See that the edge of the cap is smooth and even, then screw it down with your hands (use no wrench,), and when the time comes to open the jar, pull the gum by the lip and it will easily slip from under the cap.

These rings are made double-thick and of an A-1 quality, hence we guarantee they will stay in position under the edge of the cap when placed in use, which is not the case with many of the cheap and thin cut goods. Try them and you will be convinced.

Furniture and Furnishings.

We have converted the sixth floor of our G street building into a mammoth showroom for all classes of Summer Furniture. It is by far the best exhibit we have ever had, and for beauty and comprehensiveness cannot be surpassed anywhere. Particularly broad is the display of Chairs, Rockers, Settees and Tables.

The most largely represented line, perhaps, is the Wicker Furniture, made from the large, heavy, pliable reeds of China and India. These are stained in a large variety of hues.

Still another variety of our own American Furniture is formed from the Silver Birch of the Adirondacks, which makes charming pieces for porch and lawn. The frames of the chairs, rockers, settees and tables are of the natural wood with the bark left on, while the seats and backs and tops of tables are of polished maple slats or woven reeds.

"Old Hickory," made of the natural wood with the bark on, still holds its own. Seats and backs of chairs are made of hand-woven strips of the inner bark of the hickory tree; tops of tables and stools are made of finished natural hickory.

We also show a very artistic line of Weathered Oak Furniture, together with a large line of porch swings in natural finished wood, weathered oak and wicker.

A liberal assortment of the new Bungalow Furniture is also shown. These pieces are strongly made, with woven open sides and backs, cane seats and frames of fumed oak. The collection comprises chairs, rockers, settees, tables, window seats, &c.

We will prepay all freight charges on Furniture, Beds, Bedding, Linens, China, &c., required for the furnishing of summer homes at the seashore and mountains in the near-by States.

Summer Furniture, Refrigerators, Water Coolers, &c., sixth floor, G street.

Hammocks and Lawn Swings, fourth floor, Eleventh street.

Tomorrow, Friday, Is REMNANT DAY.

This Remnant Sale of tomorrow includes every department in our vast establishment from the basement to the seventh floor. There are remnants of every character and in every line of goods. They are simply odds and ends of things, any of which would be useful.

There are pieces—the last of certain lots, or things that are unmatched, which, however, will match many things in a home. We close out all these remnants at reduced prices on Friday in order to get the store in shape for the next week's business, and to offer fresh and complete assortments. Bargain opportunities will abound for tomorrow—and the goods are just such things as are needed now for personal use or the home.

Waylaid By a Negro.

James W. Robey, charged with attempted criminal assault, was held to await the action of the grand jury in Washington under $3,000 bond in the Police Court yesterday before Judge Scott. The prisoner pleaded guilty and was committed to jail in default of bond. It is alleged that Robey accosted Florence Parsons, a seventeen-year old girl living on the Bowen road, last Monday night, in a lonely spot on the Ridge road, near Benning. The young woman was on her way home with some groceries and held her pocketbook in her hands. Robey first took those articles and then threw them away. During the struggle which followed, Miss Parsons fought bravely with her assailant. In attempting to stifle her screams, Robey placed his left hand over her mouth, and his little finger was almost bitten off. Two negro workmen, hearing the girl's cries, hurried to her aid. Robey released his victim and fled, but was later arrested. The prisoner is said to be a tramp, and is know to have attempted a similar crime about two years ago. The young woman was unhurt.

Brother and Sister Assassinated.

What is belived to be the sequel of a fued of long standing, resulted in Valdosta, Ga., Tuesday night, in the assassination of the 17-year-old son and the 16-year-old daughter of W. L. Carter, formerly a Baptist minister. The young people, attracted by the barking of a dog in the yard surrounding their home, went out to investigate, followed by a younger child. They were fired upon by someone from behind a smokehouse. The young lady fell dead, the young man crawled back to the house, where he died, and the younger child was wounded. Mr. Carter fired upon someone prowling in his yard early yesterday. He says the intruder was a negro. He believes the assassins are negroes, but says some other may have been the instigator of the crime.

Torture of a Preacher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased conditions of Throat and Lungs. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Found a Cure for Dyspepsia.

Mrs. S. Lindsay, of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, who was suffering quite a number of years from dyspepsia and great pains in the stomach, was advised by her druggist to take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. She did so and says, "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion why not take these Tablets, get well and stay well? For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Quality vs. Quantity.

When you take Kodol Dyspesia Cure your system gets all the nourishment out of all the food you eat. It digests what you eat regardless of the condition of the stomach and conveys the nutrient properities to the blood and tissues. This builds up and strengthens the entire system. MONDAY, JUNE 19, 1905, at 1:30 p. m., at POTOMAC CITY (QUANTICO), VA., sell at public auction so much of the right, title, interest and estate of the defendant, Max Lansburgh, in and to that valuable and extensive domain situated in the county of Prince William, State of Virginia, described as containing 4,264 acres, more or less, and bounded on the north by Quantico creek, on the south by Chappawamsic creek and on the west by the telegraph road, together with all rights and appurtenances there to belonging or in any wise appertaining, as may be necessary to satisfy the amount of the said decree in favor of the plaintiffs against the said Max Lansburgh; to-wit, the sum of $2,717.77, with interest on $2,473.66, part thereof, from March 8, 1900, and on $268.11, the residue thereof from October 4, 1901, until paid, and the costs of this suit and of sale.

FRONTING ON THE POTOMAC RIVER, AT POTOMAC CITY (QUANTICO), VA.,

Terms of Sale—One-third of the purchase money in cash on the day of sale and the residue in two equal installments at six and twelve months from the day of sale, the deferred installments to bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum from the day of sale until paid, and the title to be retained until the full payment of the purchase money. The purchaser or purchasers may at their option pay all in cash. All conveyancing to be at the cost of the purchaser or purchasers.

Although the holdings of defendant, Max Lansburgh, are subject to the contingent dower right of his wife in the equity of redemption, and subject also to the rights of W. A. Wimsatt under a certain agreement bearing date February 9, 1904 and March 4, 1904, respectively, and the deed made in pursuance thereof, recorded among the land records of Prince William county in liber 52, page 323, and consequently, should it be necessary to sell the entire holdings of Mr. Lansburgh, the sale would have to be subject thereto; yet the commissioners will be in a position to give good titles to individual lots, parcels etc., without encroaching upon the bulk of the domain, because, in the first place, resort would after such sales have to be made in respect of said contingent dower interest to the remaining bulk of the domain thus relieving the individual lots, parcels &c. and, in the second place, the rights of W. A. Wimsatt are expressly subject to a release by him of his liens when individual lots, parcels etc., without encroaching upon the bulk of the domain, and without interference with his timber cutting, are sold.

In conductinng the sale, therefore, the commissioners will first proceed to offer individuals lots, parcels etc, as follows:

Church and schoolhouse together with half acre of ground;

Two 2-story 7-room dwellings, very desirable;

Four 1-story dwellings, containing, respectively, 2, 3 and 4 rooms;

One store-building, one story;

An exceptionally large 2-story dwelling in addition to the the two already mentioned;

One combined stable and barn;

Numerous valuable building lots;

"M. Turner Tract" of 32 acres;

"T. Turner Tract of 40.25 acres:

"Dowell Tract" of 40 acres;

"Maddox Tract" of 48 acres;

"Downer Tract" of 57.75 acre;

"McNair Tract" of 70.12 acres; etc. etc.

This is a great opportunity to buy homes and build homes in the eastern section of the county, with excellent railroad facilities, and all the advantages of the water facilities afforded by the Potomac river which are the more available at Potomac City on account of the depth of the channel at that point.

JAMES R. CATON,
J. B. T. THORNTON,
Commissioners of Sale.

I, John S. Beach, Clerk of the Corporation Court of Alexandria, do certify that James R. Caton has executed bond with approved surety as required by the above decree.

JOHN S. BEACH, Clerk.
